2015 LIBRARY highlights

... in case you missed out.

LET ME BE MYSELF- THE STORY OF ANNE FRANK

August - September 2015

The Anne Frank Travelling Exhibition was brought to Australia by the Anne Frank Stichting (Foundation). It was housed at the library for six weeks. The library space was transformed into a walk-through of Anne Frank's legacy, with a series of panels of photographs, written pieces, models and DVDs. It depicted the story of the Frank family at that time, together with what was happening in Europe and it also discussed tolerance in today's society. The exhibition attracted over 1500 visitors from schools, from all over Victoria and all sectors of the community.
